

Welcome to visit Via Finlandia!

Drive into the heartland of Finnish culture. Whether you enjoy art, nature, local traditions or perhaps modern adventure parks and spas, let Via Finlandia lead you!

The route passes through small scenic roads through 18 towns and the most beautiful Finnish countryside. You have the chance to experience a number of exciting sights and places, such as Ateneum, the Finnish National Gallery in Helsinki, Ainola, the home of composer Jean Sibelius in Järvenpää, the Häme Castle in Hämeenlinna, Visavuori, museum and atelier of sculptor Emil Wikström in Valkeakoski, the Sara Hildén Art Museum in Tampere, Alvar Aalto Centre in Seinäjoki, and the ruin area of Old Vaasa in Vaasa.

Stay at idyllic countryside locations or in bustling cities and enjoy the local cuisine!
